Self Teaching Materials

The screenshot shows the 'eTwinning Self Teaching Material' mini-website. It features a navigation menu on the left with categories like 'GETTING READY TO BECOME AN ACTIVE ETWINNER', 'COMMUNICATING IN ETWINNING', 'COLLABORATION IN ETWINNING', 'MANAGEMENT OF THE TWINSPACE', 'PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND NETWORKING', and 'HOW TO ACHIEVE QUALITY'. The main content area is titled 'Welcome to the eTwinning Self Teaching Materials Mini-Website' and explains that self-teaching materials are at the disposal of registered teachers and are connected to the progression system. It lists thematic modules and their corresponding areas of progression.

Areas of Progression	Modules
Basics	Getting ready to become an active (3 Modules)
Communication	Communicating in eTwinning (2 Modules)
Collaboration	Collaboration in eTwinning (6 Modules)
Networking	Professional development and networking (2 Modules)
Quality	How to achieve quality (4 Modules)

Progression

Your eTwinning progression is determined by two factors: your participation in eTwinning and the usage of Self Teaching Materials. They both indicate of how far you are in your eTwinning Journey.

The Progression based on your participation in eTwinning is divided into five areas; Basics, Communication, Collaboration, Networking and Professional Development and Quality. Examples of actions which will make your progression increase are:

- > Basics: login, write project idea, add a profile picture, write posts in your profile.
- > Communication: contacts, follow people, write internal message.
- > Collaboration: project membership, using the TwinSpace.
- > Professional Development and networking: Groups' membership, participation in events and other PD activities.
- > Quality: organising events, moderating Groups, Quality Labels.

Bear in mind that there is always a limit to how many things of the same category you can do to increase your progression bar: after writing a number of messages or posts your progression will not change!

The progression can also be based on the Self Teaching Materials which you can take to improve your eTwinning experience. You can find such materials on the platform.

Remember: your progression is visible to everyone within eTwinning and can act as a guide as to your eTwinning experience and active participation.

Any questions?

The benefits you get from eTwinning as a teacher are closely related to the amount of time you allocate to it!

thank you!
